Dear Principal,

We would like to express our sincere appreciation for your continued support of your students applying to the School of Political Science and Economics at Waseda University.

We are writing to inform you of the decision by our School to revise the requirements of English proficiency test scores for the High School Recommendation Admissions, effective from the 2028 academic year entry onwards.

English Proficiency Test Score Requirements (English-based Degree Program)

Until September 2027 Entry	From September 2028 Entry
1. TOEFL-iBT: 86 points or higher 2. IELTS (Academic): 6.5 or higher	1. TOEFL-iBT: 94 points or higher 2. IELTS (Academic): 7.0 or higher

This decision has been made after careful consideration, in light of our planned curriculum revision which will place increased emphasis on English language proficiency

Your kind understanding in this matter is greatly appreciated. We deeply value our relationship between your school and Waseda University, and look forward to continued collaboration.

Yours faithfully,

Masato Shizume
Dean, School of Political Science and Economics
