

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICIC 2026

Seventy Years Forward: Liberal Learning for a Changing World

Tunghai University, Taichung, Taiwan · 25 June 2026

ICIC 2026 invites scholars who teach and research in English to share work reflecting the breadth of academic inquiry in English-medium higher education — with particular emphasis on those working in non-English-dominant contexts such as international colleges. Submissions are welcome from all academic fields.

SPEAKERS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Chi-Hung Juan Chair Professor and Executive Vice President, National Central University

INVITED SPEAKERS

Marc Lanteigne

Professor of Political Science, Arctic University of Norway, Tromsø, Norway

Makito Yurita

Professor, National Institute for School Teachers and Staff Development, Japan

Cham Tat Huei

Professor of Marketing, Swinburne University of Technology Sarawak Campus, Malaysia

Michael Mikulewicz

Assistant Professor, Department of Environmental Studies, State University of New York ESF, USA

SUBMISSIONS

DEADLINE

May 5

Acceptance by late May

Submit a title and 300-word abstract

Via the submission form at icic.thu.edu.tw

This is a fully in-person conference.

CONFERENCE SUPPORT

Funding permitting, we anticipate providing two nights of accommodation, high-speed rail from Taoyuan Airport to Taichung, and a modest per diem for a limited number of participants.

Submissions and full details: icic.thu.edu.tw | Contact: ctakagi@thu.edu.tw